Summary

PraxisProfessional.com is my main focus. Praxis Professional is a DBA of Apex Law Service and we focus on building paralegal teams for attorneys who take on sex trafficking victims as clients.

ApexLawService.com | DocupletionForms.com | NAOLDP.org | allinservice.org | SkateThruLife.com | PraxisInvestigations.com | and last but not least we are working on | RetainerCrypto.online | putting trust and escrow type transactions under the buyer's control.....

-----Apex Law Service connects clients with attorneys and does the paralegal work in the middle. DocupletionForms is an expert law system software program that allows you to use your own wording to ask conditional logic questions in an online form and then select and complete fill in the blank documents with the data. NAOLDP is a professional free association where you can register your legal document related business. The All In Service Network is a blueprint for a project that any community group can do to help kids on juvenile probation to complete their court ordered community service hours and it is a project that legal document professionals can help local community group leaders to organize. Skate Thru Life is a project building deliverable cement skate ramps that we are planning on delivering to communities without skate parks.

www.SkateThruLife.com is a project that I am coordinating with some Construction Industry Professional Contacts and different Community Leaders across the USA. We are going to be delivering metal walled cement skate quarter pipes to communities where there are currently not free skate parks. The ramps are solid metal and cement and we simply need a community approved flat plot of cement to place them on top of.
